18 December 2012

Dear Fellow Engenco Shareholder

Offer to acquire Engenco Limited

Following an approach from the independent directors of Engenco Limited (Engenco), Elph Pty Ltd (Elph) is pleased to make an all cash unconditional Offer to acquire all of your Shares in Engenco.

Elph is offering 18 cents cash for each of your Engenco Shares. The Offer is unconditional and will remain open until 28 February 2013, unless extended. Under the Offer you may sell either all or part of your shareholding in Engenco.

The Offer gives you, including if you do not wish to participate in the current 3 for 2 renounceable entitlement offer at 15 cents per Share (Entitlement Offer), an alternative option to exit your investment at a price greater than the price under the Entitlement Offer.

The Offer not only applies to existing Shares, but also extends to all new Engenco Shares which are issued under the Entitlement Offer. This allows you to take up your entitlement at 15 cents per Share under the Entitlement Offer and accept into the Offer at 18 cents per Share if you wish. This applies even if you accept the Offer before Shares are issued to you under the Entitlement Offer.

The full cash consideration provides certainty of value and removes your exposure to the risk associated with continuing to hold Engenco Shares.

Engenco has entered into a Bid Implementation Deed with Elph, a copy of which was annexed to the announcement made to ASX on 12 December 2012.

Your Engenco independent directors have indicated to Elph that they welcome the Offer as providing needed support to the Entitlement Offer. However, your Engenco independent directors have indicated they do not intend to consider making a formal recommendation to Engenco Shareholders regarding the Offer until after Engenco has received the Independent Expert's Report to be included in its Target's Statement in relation to the Offer. Engenco has established an independent board committee in relation to the Offer.

If you accept the Offer, your acceptance will cover all of your Shares including any Shares which are issued to you under the Entitlement Offer. However, your Acceptance Form contains an alternative for you to elect to retain a specified number of Shares following the close of the Entitlement Offer in case you prefer this alternative.

The Offer is unconditional, providing you with certainty as to when you will be paid. If your acceptance of the Offer is received by 31 January 2013 you will be sent your payment by 8 February 2013. If your acceptance of the Offer is received after 31 January 2013 you will be sent your payment within 14 days of your acceptance.

Details of the Offer and the key reasons why you should consider accepting it are set out in this Bidder's Statement. We encourage you to read this document carefully. To accept the Offer for all or part of your Shares, please follow the instructions in this Bidder's Statement and in your enclosed Acceptance Form. The Offer is open for you to accept until 28 February 2013 unless extended.

If you have any questions about the Offer, please call your broker or financial or other professional adviser.

Yours sincerely

Dale Elphinstone
Executive Chairman
Elph Pty Ltd

Why you should consider accepting the Offer

1

The Offer is at a 20% premium to the Entitlement Offer price

2

If you no longer wish to be subject to the risks associated with remaining as a Shareholder, you can exit your investment at a certain price

3

The Offer allows you to sell all or part of your shareholding in Engenco, a stock that has relatively low trading liquidity

4

There is no competing offer and any such competing offer is unlikely

Detailed reasons why you should consider accepting the Offer

1. The Offer is at a 20% premium to the Entitlement Offer price

The Offer is at 18 cents per Share. This represents a 20% premium to the issue price of 15 cents under the Entitlement Offer.

The Offer gives you an alternative option to exit your investment at a price greater than the price under the Entitlement Offer.

The Offer not only applies to existing Shares, but also extends to all new Shares which are issued under the Entitlement Offer. This allows you to take up your entitlement at 15 cents per Share under the Entitlement Offer and accept into the Offer at 18 cents per Share if you wish.

2. If you no longer wish to be subject to the risks associated with remaining as a Shareholder, you can exit your investment at a certain price

On 12 December 2012, Engenco reported a significant revised earnings downgrade, with FY13 NPAT forecast to be between negative $10 million to negative $12 million. Accepting the Offer will ensure that you are no longer exposed to the risks associated with being an Engenco Shareholder.

If you accept the Offer, you will be paid 18 cents cash for each of your Shares accepted into the Offer. The Offer is unconditional. This provides you with certainty of value for your Shares, notwithstanding the recent substantial earnings downgrade.

In the absence of the Offer, the amount that you may be able to realise for your Shares would be uncertain. The certainty provided by receiving cash should be compared with the risks and uncertainties associated with remaining a Shareholder.

3. The Offer allows you to sell all or part of your shareholding in Engenco, a stock that has relatively low trading liquidity

Engenco Shares have historically had relatively low trading liquidity on ASX. This Offer provides you with an opportunity to dispose of all or part of your Shares in a single transaction for a certain value.

The Offer is unconditional, providing you with certainty as to when you will be paid. If your acceptance of the Offer is received by 31 January 2013 you will be sent your payment by 8 February 2013. If your acceptance of the Offer is received after 31 January 2013 you will be sent your payment within 14 days of your acceptance.

If you do not accept the Offer, and your Shares are not subject to compulsory acquisition by Elph, the market for Shares may become less liquid than at present. In view of Elph's current 37.6% interest in Engenco, Elph is subject to the usual statutory restrictions from purchasing your Shares following the close of the Offer.

If you do not accept the Offer, and your Shares are subject to compulsory acquisition by Elph, you will face a delay in being paid the consideration for your Shares compared with Engenco Shareholders who accepted the Offer during the Offer Period.

4. There is no competing offer and any such competing offer is unlikely

The Offer was made by Elph following an approach from the independent directors of Engenco.

Elph is not aware of any other party intending to make an offer for your Shares. In Elph's view, it is unlikely that such an offer will materialise. Elph is Engenco's largest shareholder, with a 37.6% shareholding in Engenco as at the date of this Bidder's Statement.

Engenco has entered into a Bid Implementation Deed with Elph, a copy of which was annexed to the announcement made to ASX on 12 December 2012. It requires Engenco to pay a break fee of $250,000 to Elph in certain cases including if a Competing Proposal is recommended by an Engenco director not associated with Elph.

Section 1 – Information about Elph

1.1 Background

Elph is a privately held company which is part of the Elphinstone group of companies controlled by Elph's founder and Executive Chairman, Mr Dale Elphinstone. The Elphinstone group has an extensive range of business interests and investments with a particular focus in the engineering, manufacturing, heavy machinery, logistics and resources industries.

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, Elph holds 37.6% of the issued Share capital of Engenco. The directors of Elph are Dale Elphinstone, Cheryl Elphinstone and Vincent De Santis.

Mr Elphinstone is also Chairman of Engenco, and Mr De Santis is also a non-executive director of Engenco. Engenco has established an independent board committee in relation to the Offer.

1.2 Funding of the Offer

The consideration for the acquisition of the Shares to which this Offer relates will be satisfied by the payment of cash. The maximum amount of cash that may be required to be paid under the Offer if acceptances were received for all Shares on issue (excluding the Shares which Elph already owns and the Shares representing its entitlement under the Entitlement Offer) is approximately $35 million.

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, Elph and its parent company Elphinstone Holdings Pty Ltd together have sufficient cash funds available to fund the acquisition under the Offer in addition to the funding which is to be used by Elph to take up its entitlement and sub-underwriting commitments under the Entitlement Offer. The moneys held by Elphinstone Holdings Pty Ltd are readily and unconditionally available to Elph on demand.

1.3 Intentions for Engenco as a part-owned controlled entity

Elph intends to continue the Engenco business in accordance with Engenco's current plans and strategies and does not intend any major changes to Engenco's business including any redeployment of its fixed assets or the future employment of its present employees. In this regard Elph notes Engenco's ASX announcement on 17 December 2012 that 45 redundancies have been made in line with the recent market update and downwards revision to guidance necessary as part of Engenco's cost reduction programme.

Elph does not intend to make any changes to the Engenco Board although any final decision may be influenced by the level of ownership attained following the close of the Offer. It is intended that Engenco will continue to operate its business with input from the two Elph nominee directors on the Engenco board. If Elph obtains an interest in Engenco which is close to 90% or if trading liquidity in Engenco is minimal, Elph may consider seeking to remove Engenco from the official list of ASX.

1.4 Intentions for Engenco as a wholly owned controlled entity

If Elph acquires a 90% or greater interest in Engenco, it is intended that Elph would seek compulsory acquisition of the remaining Shares in accordance with regulatory requirements and to arrange for Engenco to be removed from the official list of ASX. Elph may then also be likely to consider the make-up of the Engenco board.

1.5 Qualifications regarding intentions

The intentions described in sections 1.3 and 1.4 set out Elph's current intentions in relation to Engenco. These intentions have been formed on the basis of facts and information concerning Engenco and the general business environment, which are known at the time of preparing this Bidder's Statement. Final decisions will only be reached by Elph in light of material information and circumstances at the relevant time. Accordingly, the statements set out in this section of the Bidder's Statement are statements of current intention only and may vary as new information becomes available or as circumstances change.

2.5 Engenco's issued securities

Engenco has 124,224,766 Shares on issue as at the date of this Bidder's Statement. Engenco has no other securities on issue. The Offer extends to all new Shares which are issued under the Entitlement Offer (other than those Shares held by Elph) being a further 186,337,149 Shares.

2.6 Substantial Shareholders in Engenco

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, the following entities had notified Engenco of current substantial shareholdings in Engenco (with the Engenco shareholding and current voting power being calculated on the basis of information which has been disclosed publicly):

Substantial Shareholder	Number of Shares held	Current Voting Power	Maximum Voting Power*
Elph, Elphinstone Holdings Pty Ltd and Dale Brendon Elphinstone	46,738,635	37.6%	43.3%
SG Hiscock & Company Limited	8,695,752	7.0%	8.1%
Thorney Holdings Pty Ltd	10,058,033	8.1%	9.3%

*The maximum voting power column in the table above reflects the percentage disclosed by Engenco on 12 December 2012 as a consequence of sub-underwriting agreements and commitments entered into with substantial shareholders including Elph as part of the Entitlement Offer. These maximum voting power percentages are based on certain assumptions and do not include participation in any top-up under the Entitlement Offer, the Offer, or by way of other acquisitions or disposals. For further details, refer to the cleansing notice lodged by Engenco on 12 December 2012 in connection with the Entitlement Offer available on the ASX website.

2.7 Details of relevant interests in Shares held by Elph

Elph holds a Relevant Interest (and voting power) of 37.62% in Shares as at the date of this Bidder's Statement and 38.78% in Shares at the time immediately before the date of the Offer.

2.8 Consideration provided for Shares during the previous 4 months

Neither Elph nor any of its associates has provided, or agreed to provide, consideration for Shares under any purchase or agreement during the period of 4 months before the date of the Bidder's Statement (other than Elph's sub-underwriting agreement and commitment in relation to the Entitlement Offer at 15 cents per Share reflected in the table in section 2.6).

2.9 No inducing benefits given during the previous 4 months

Neither Elph nor any of its associates has, during the period of 4 months before the date of this Bidder's Statement, given, or offered to give or agreed to give, a benefit to another person where the benefit was likely to induce the other person, or an associate, to accept the Offer or dispose of Shares which benefit is not offered to all Shareholders under the Offer.

Section 3 – Australian Tax Considerations

3.1 General

The following is a general summary of the principal Australian tax consequences generally applicable to Shareholders who dispose of their Shares under the Offer for cash consideration. These consequences will depend on the individual circumstances of Shareholders. You should make your own inquiries and seek independent professional advice on your circumstances.

The comments set out below are relevant only to those Shareholders who hold their Shares as capital assets for the purpose of investment and who do not (or would not) hold those Shares in connection with the conduct of a business. Certain Shareholders (such as those engaged in a business of trading or investment, those who acquired their Shares for the purpose of resale at a profit or those which are banks, insurance companies, tax exempt organisations, superannuation funds, or persons who acquired their Shares in the course of their employment with Engenco) will or may be subject to special or different tax consequences peculiar to their circumstances.

The following outline is based upon Australian taxation law and practice in effect as at the date of this Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or complete statement or analysis of the taxation laws applicable to the particular circumstances of every Shareholder. Shareholders should seek independent professional advice regarding the taxation consequences of disposing of Shares in the light of their own particular circumstances.

3.2 Australian-resident Shareholders

If you accept the Offer, you will be treated as having disposed of your Shares. If you held them on capital account and you dispose of them, such a disposal is likely to constitute a CGT event for CGT purposes. Australian resident Shareholders may make a capital gain or capital loss on the disposal of their Shares under the Offer.

Capital gains and capital losses of a taxpayer in a year of income are aggregated to determine whether there is a net capital gain. If so, that net capital gain is included in assessable income and is subject to income tax. However, a 'CGT Discount' may be available to reduce the taxable gain for certain Shareholders (see further below). Capital losses may be offset only against capital gains realised in the same income year or be carried forward to be offset against future capital gains (not against other income for income tax purposes).

In general, the capital gain or loss on the disposal of a Share under the Offer is the difference between the value of the capital proceeds (i.e. the consideration received from Elph) and the cost base of the Share. The cost base of Shares is generally their cost of acquisition or deemed cost of acquisition. Certain other amounts associated with acquisition and disposal, such as brokerage or stamp duty, may be added to the cost base. The capital loss will be calculated on the basis of the difference between the capital proceeds and the reduced cost base of the Share.

A Shareholder who is an individual, complying superannuation entity or trustee of a trust may be eligible for a 50% 'CGT Discount' if they acquired (or are deemed to have acquired) their Shares 12 months or more before the time they accept the Offer. The CGT Discount is not available to companies, nor does it apply to Shares owned (or deemed to be owned) for less than the relevant 12 month period.

Shareholders should consult their own tax advisers in this regard.

3.3 Non-resident Shareholders

Shareholders who are not resident in Australia for tax purposes should also consider the tax consequences under the laws of their country of residence, as well as under Australian law, of the disposal of Shares under the Offer. Shares held by a Shareholder who is not an Australian resident for tax purposes will be taxable Australian property only if:

- (a) the Shares are an indirect Australian real property interest; or
- (b) the Shares were used at any time by the Shareholder in carrying on a business through a permanent establishment in Australia.

Shares will not constitute an indirect Australian real property interest unless the total market value of Australian real property assets is more than 50% of the total market value of Engenco's assets. Based on publicly available information about the nature and location of Engenco's assets, it is not expected that Shares will constitute an indirect Australian real property interest. Therefore, Shares will only be taxable Australian property if the Shareholder uses (or has used) their Shares in carrying on a business through a permanent establishment in Australia.

3.4 Stamp duty and GST

No stamp duty will be payable by Shareholders on the transfer of Shares to Elph pursuant to the Offer. Shareholders may be charged GST on costs (such as brokerage and advisor fees if any) that relate to their participation in the Offer. Shareholders may be entitled to input tax credits for such costs, but should seek independent advice in relation to their individual circumstances.

Section 4 – Additional Information

4.1 Entitlement Offer

On 12 December 2012, a replacement 3 for 2 renounceable entitlement offer at 15 cents per Share was announced by Engenco, and the Offer extends to all new Shares which are issued under it. For further details about the Entitlement Offer, refer to the announcement made by Engenco on 12 December 2012 available on the ASX website.

4.2 ASIC modification

Elph has applied for and obtained from ASIC a modification of section 617 of the Corporations Act to extend the Offer to Shares that are issued in the period after the Register Date to before the end of the Offer Period due to an issue of Shares by Engenco under the Entitlement Offer. A modification to section 617 of the Corporations Act was necessary because that section provides that the Offer must relate to Shares that exist or will exist as at the Register Date.

The offer by Engenco to participate in the Entitlement Offer closes on 18 January 2013 and Engenco has stated that it is anticipated that Shares under the Entitlement Offer will be issued on 29 January 2013.

4.3 Bid Implementation Deed

Elph and Engenco entered into a Bid Implementation Deed on 12 December 2012 whereby Elph and Engenco have agreed to co-operate with each other in relation to the Offer. A summary of certain key terms of the Bid Implementation Deed is set out below. This summary does not purport to be exhaustive or constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of the parties under the Bid Implementation Deed. The full terms of the Bid Implementation Deed can be viewed in the ASX announcement made by Elph in connection with the Offer on the Announcement Date.

- During the Offer Period, if a Competing Proposal is put to Engenco then Engenco must promptly inform Elph of that fact, the identity of the person or persons and the key terms of any proposal made by that person.
- Engenco must pay Elph the amount of $250,000 if a Competing Proposal is announced or put to the independent directors of Engenco and either:
 - (a) at any time during the Offer Period, the proponent of the Competing Proposal acquires voting power or an economic interest in more than 20% of Engenco Shares or acquires or obtains an economic interest in all or a substantial part of the assets or businesses of the Engenco Group; or
 - (b) the Competing Proposal is recommended or promoted by any director of Engenco not associated with Elph.
- Each of Elph and Engenco gives certain customary warranties to each other, including their legal capacity as set out in clause 5 of the Bid Implementation Deed.

4.5 ASIC Class orders

ASIC has published various Class Order instruments providing for modifications and exemptions that apply generally to all persons including Elph in relation to the operation of Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act. Elph will make available a copy of these documents or of relevant extracts from them free of charge to Shareholders who request them during the Offer Period. For the purposes of section 633(2) of the Corporations Act, the date for determining the people to whom information is to be sent under items 6 and 12 of section 633(1) of the Corporations Act for the Offer is the Register Date.

4.7 Other material information

Except as set out elsewhere in this Bidder's Statement, there is no other information that is material to the making of a decision by a Shareholder whether or not to accept an Offer and known to Elph, that has not previously been disclosed to Shareholders.

CHESS

Your form must be received by the end of the Offer Period.

This is an important document that requires your immediate attention. If you are in doubt about how to deal with this form, please contact your financial or other professional adviser.

Return your form to your Controlling Participant (normally your stockbroker) and allow enough time for them to initiate acceptance on your behalf in accordance with ASX Settlement Operating Rules.

This form relates to an off-market takeover ("Offer") by Elph Pty Ltd ("Elph") to acquire all of your Shares in Engenco Limited ("Engenco") pursuant to a Bidder's Statement dated 18 December 2012 and any replacements or supplements ("Bidder's Statement"). Terms defined in the Bidder's Statement but not in this form have the same meaning as in the Bidder's Statement unless the context requires otherwise.

How to accept the Offer

As your Engenco Shares are in a CHESS holding, you may contact your controlling participant directly (normally your stockbroker) with instructions to accept the Offer, if you do this, you will need to sign and return this Transfer and Acceptance Form to your Controlling Participant. If you want the Bidder to contact your Controlling Participant on your behalf, sign and return this form to the address below so that it is received in sufficient time to allow your instruction to be acted upon by the last day of the Offer Period. This will authorise the Bidder to instruct your Controlling Participant to initiate acceptance of the Offer on your behalf.

If you sign and return this Transfer and Acceptance Form, you warrant to the Bidder (and authorise the Bidder to warrant on your behalf) that you have full legal and beneficial ownership of the Engenco Shares to which this Transfer and Acceptance Form relates and that the Bidder will acquire them free from all mortgages, charges, liens, encumbrances (whether legal or equitable), restrictions on transfer of any kind and free from any third party rights.

Step 1: Registration Name

Your consideration will be issued in the names as they appear on the latest copy of the Engenco register, as provided to Elph. The current address recorded is printed above and overleaf. If you have recently bought or sold Engenco Shares or elected to participate in the Entitlement Offer your holding may differ from that shown. If you have already sold all your Engenco Shares, do not complete or return this form.

Step 2: Consideration and Shares

Please read carefully. You will be deemed to have accepted the Offer for ALL of your Shares including any Shares which are issued under the Entitlement Offer unless you complete the specified section overleaf.

Step 3: Signing Instructions

To be effective the Engenco Shareholder must sign this form accordingly to these instructions:

Individual: Where the holding is in one name, the Engenco Shareholder must sign.

Joint Holding: Where the holding is in more than one name, all of the Engenco Shareholders must sign.

Power of Attorney: Please attach a certified photocopy of the Power of Attorney to this form when you return it. If this form is signed under Power of Attorney, the attorney declares that he/she has no notice of the revocation of the Power of Attorney.

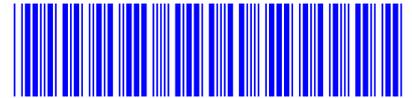

Companies: Where the company has a Sole Director who is also the Sole Company Secretary, this form must be signed by that person in the box labelled 'Sole Director and Sole Company Secretary'. If the company (pursuant to section 204A of the Corporations Act 2001) does not have a Company Secretary, a Sole Director can also sign alone as 'Sole Director'. Otherwise this form must be signed by a Director jointly with either another Director or a Company Secretary. Please sign in the appropriate place to attest to the office held and delete any inappropriate title.

Deceased Estate: All executors must sign and a certified copy of Probate or Letters of Administration must accompany this form.

Entering the contact details of the person you authorise to speak about this holding is not compulsory, but will assist us if we need to contact you.
